

Richland One
South Carolina's Capital Schools

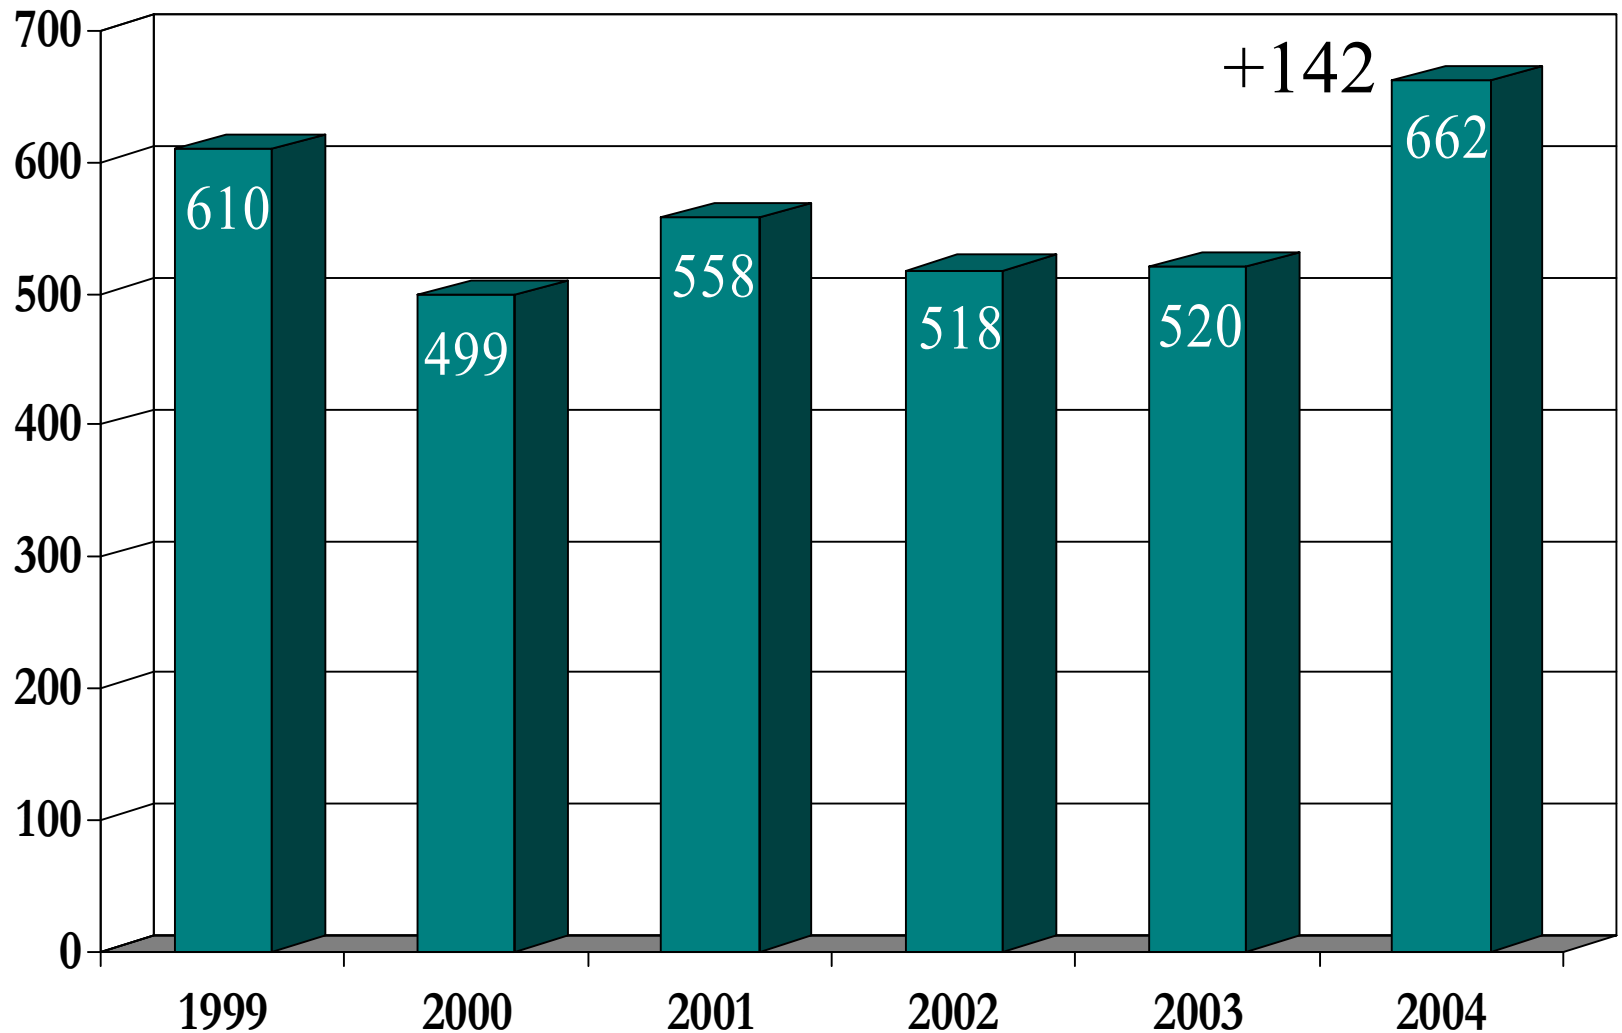

Advanced Placement Results 2004

Office of Research and Evaluation

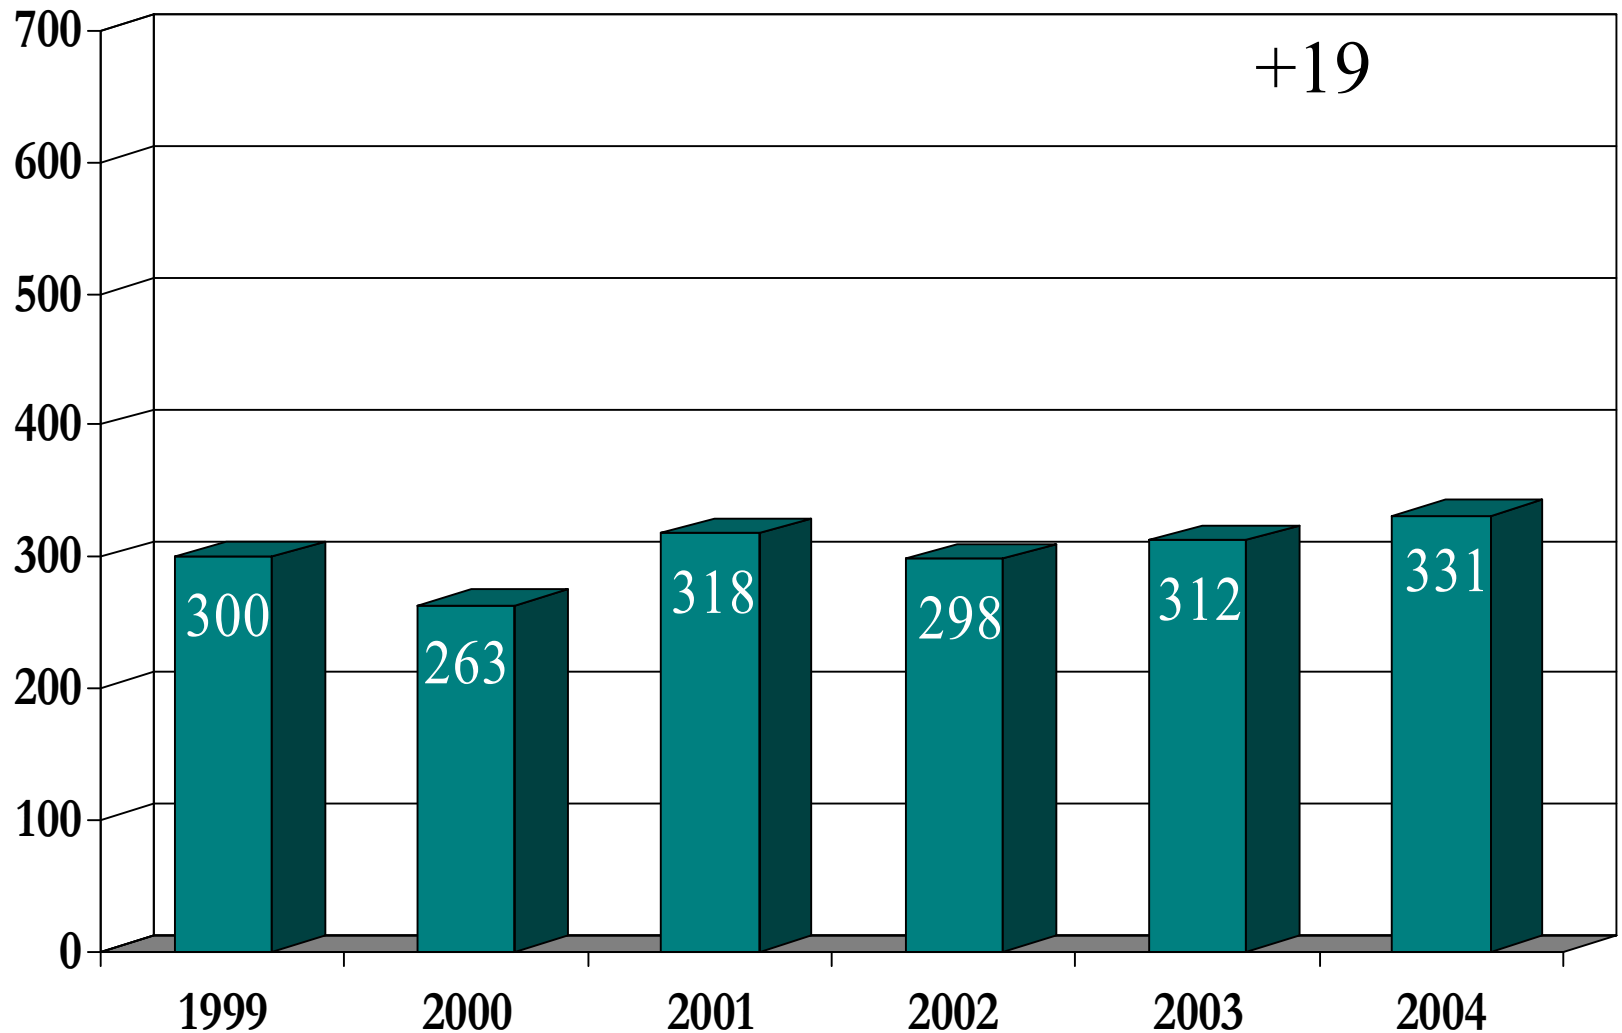

Number of Students Taking One or More AP Exams

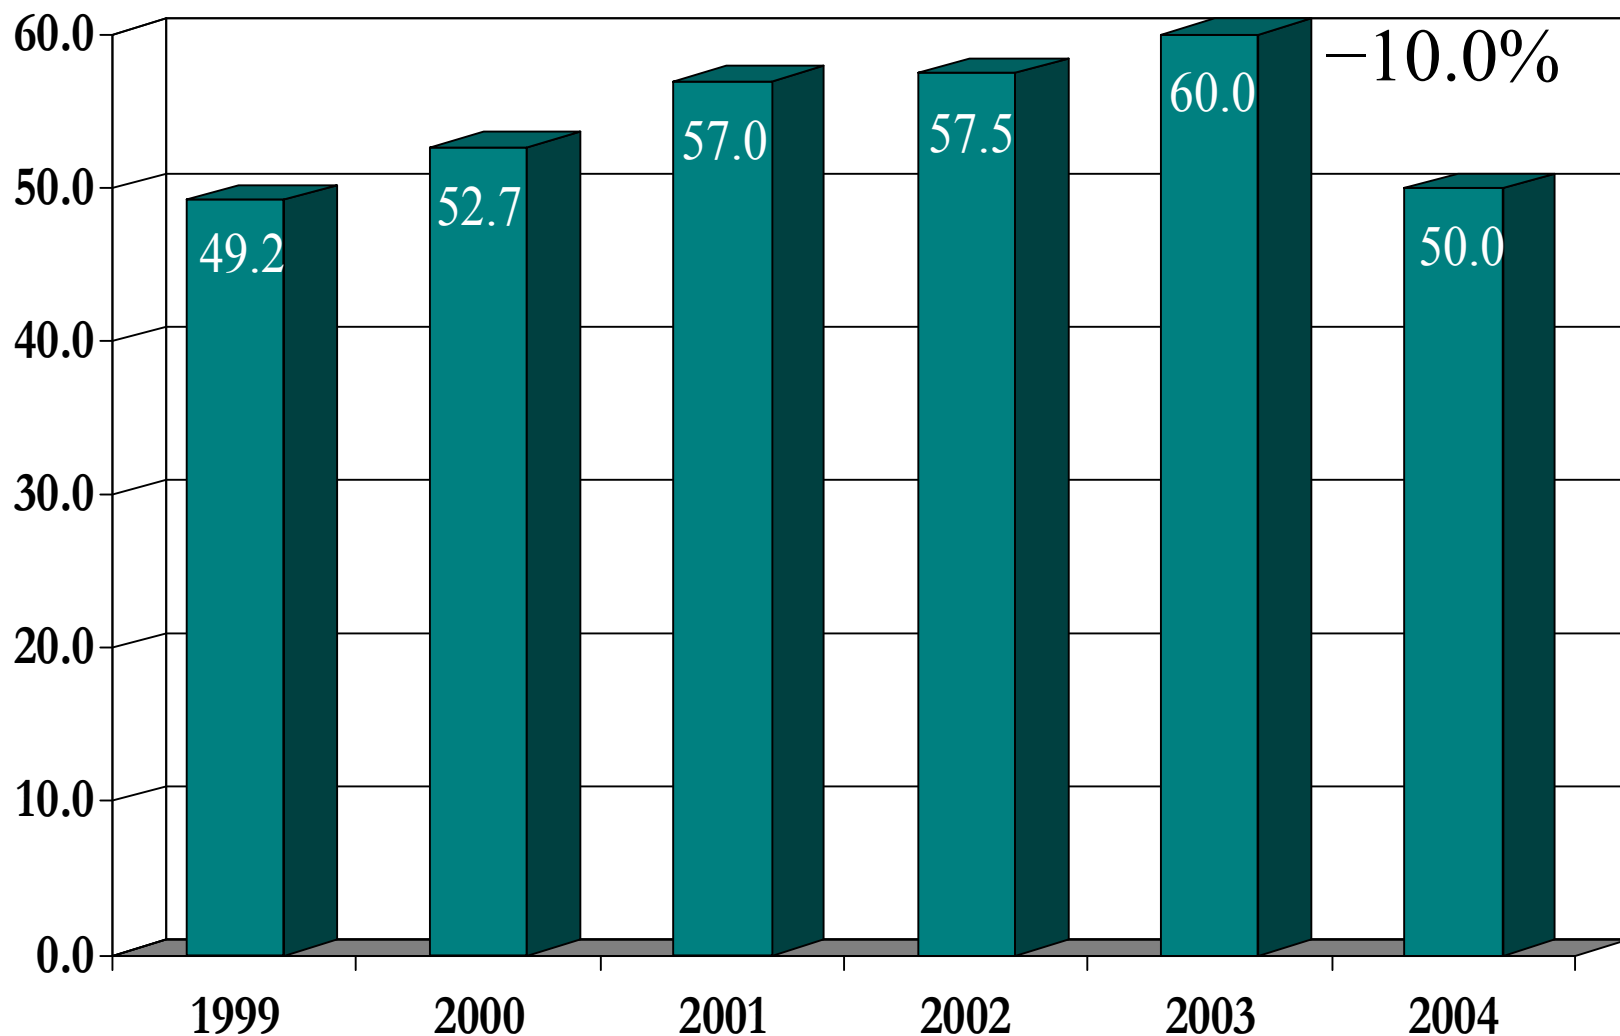

Number of AP Exams Taken

Number of AP Exams Passed (Scoring 3 or Higher)

Percent of AP Exams Passed (Scoring 3 or Higher)

District, State, and National Passing Rate for All 2004 AP Exams

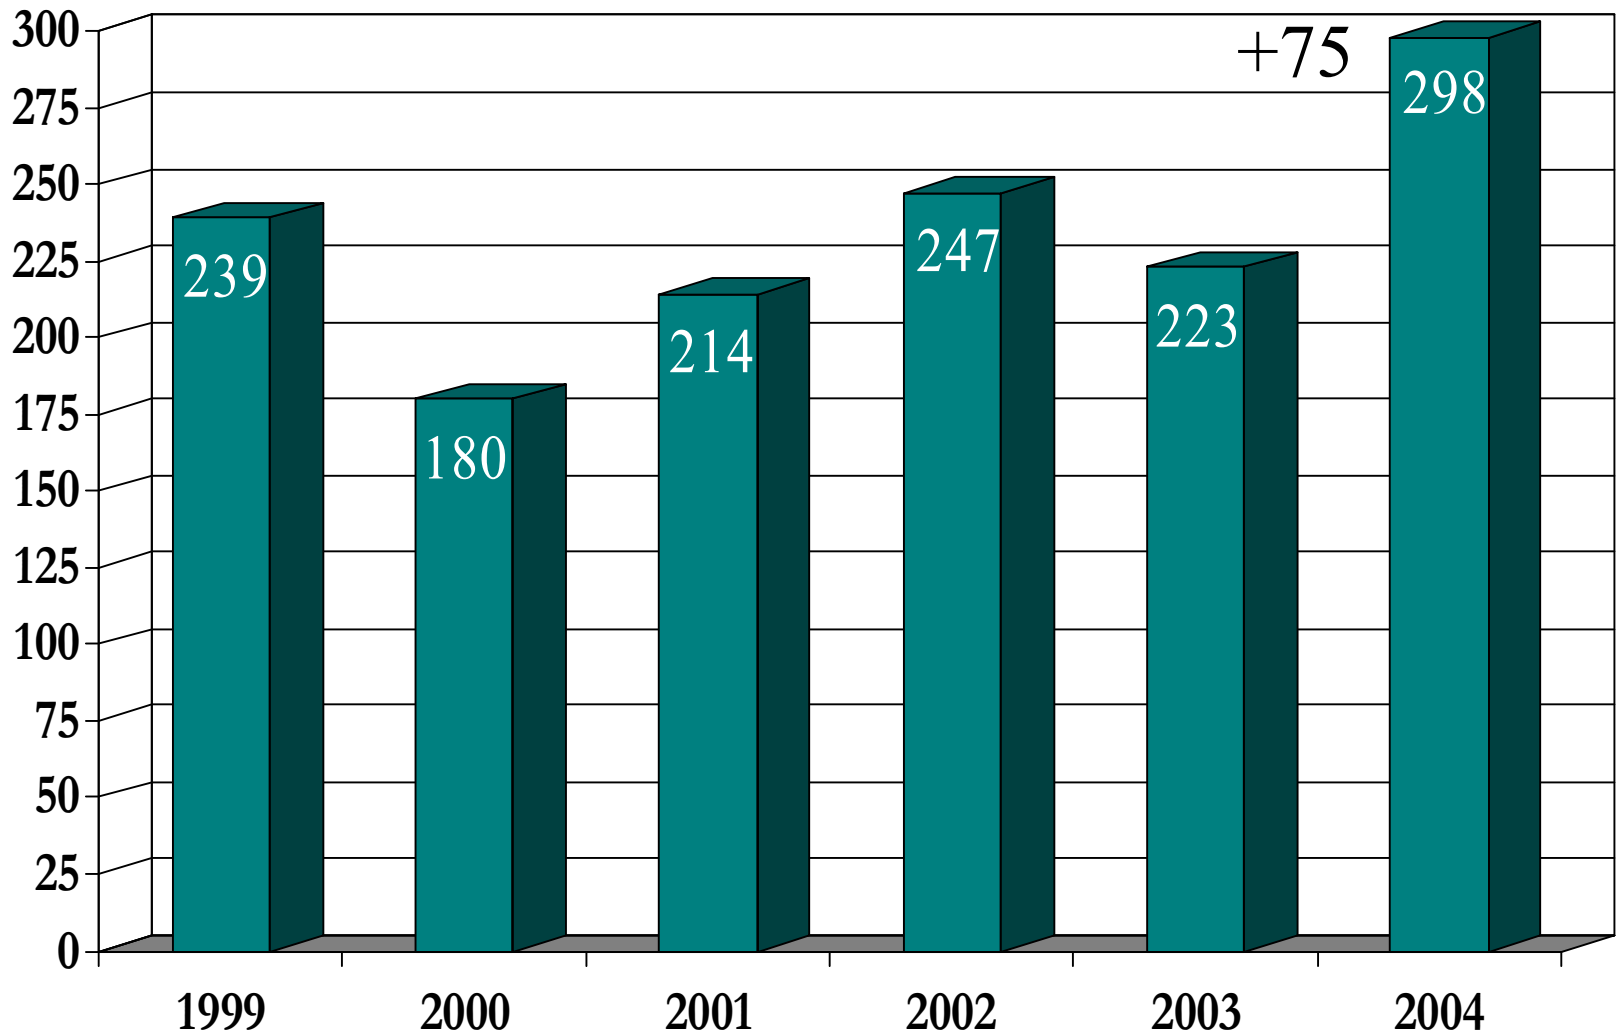

Level	Passing Rate
District	50%
State	56%
National	60%

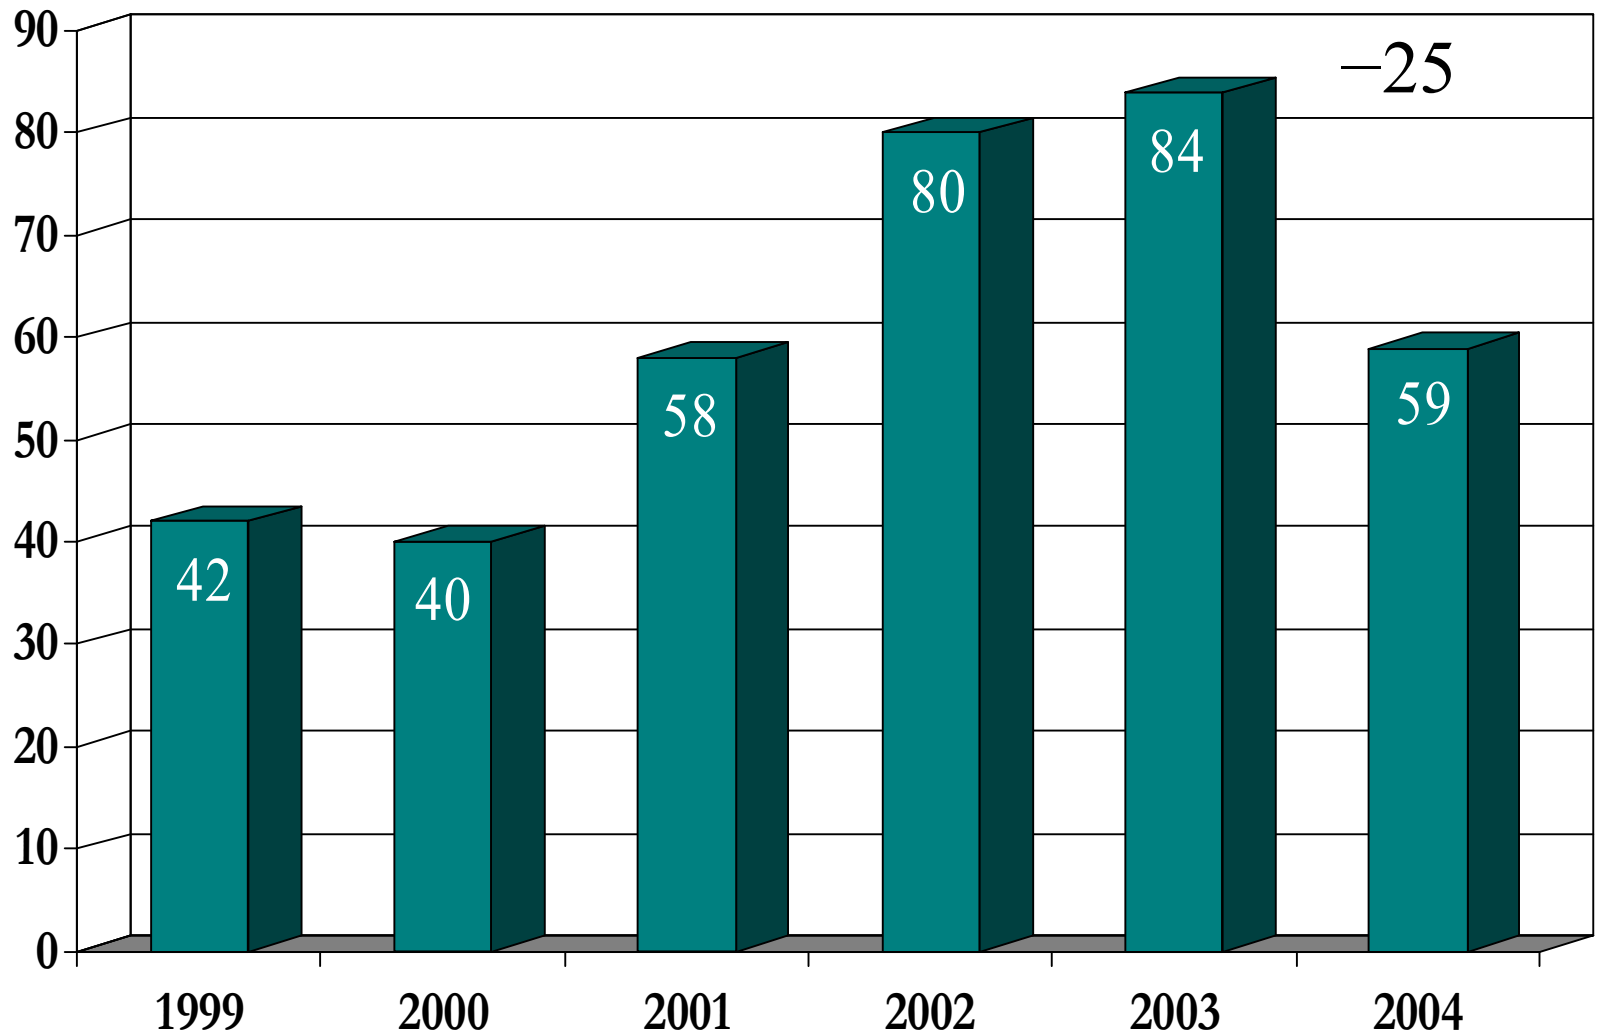

Richland One
South Carolina's Capital Schools

2004
AP Results
By Race

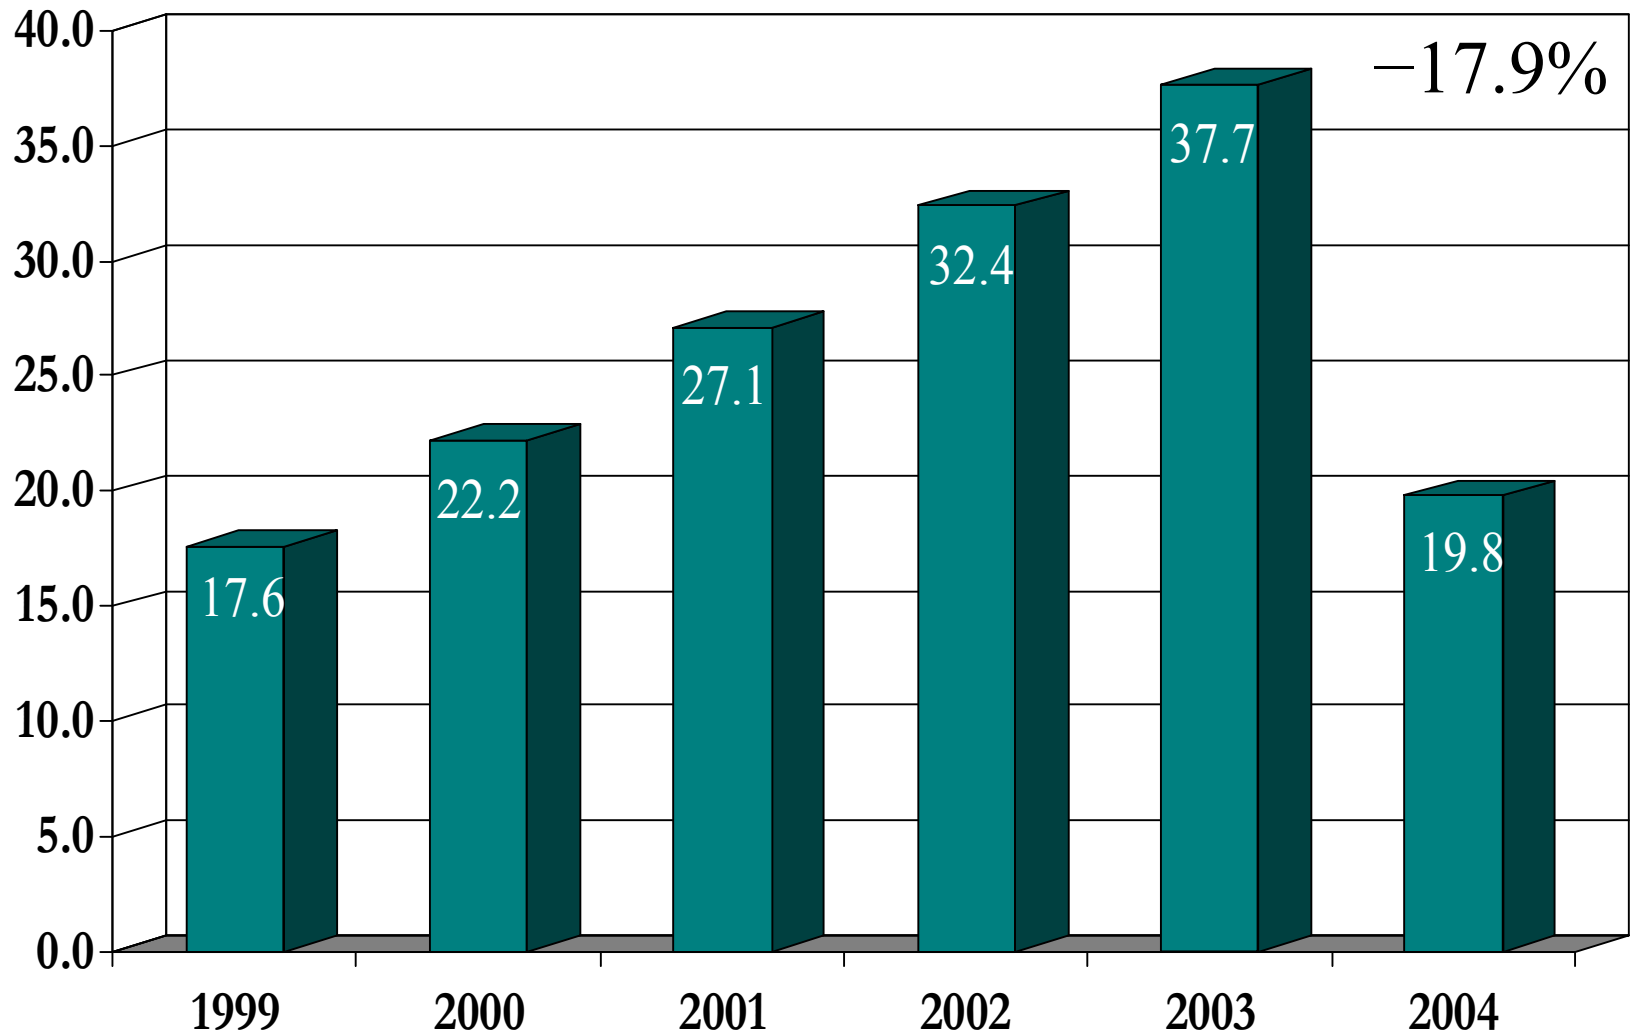

Number of Exams Taken By African-American Students

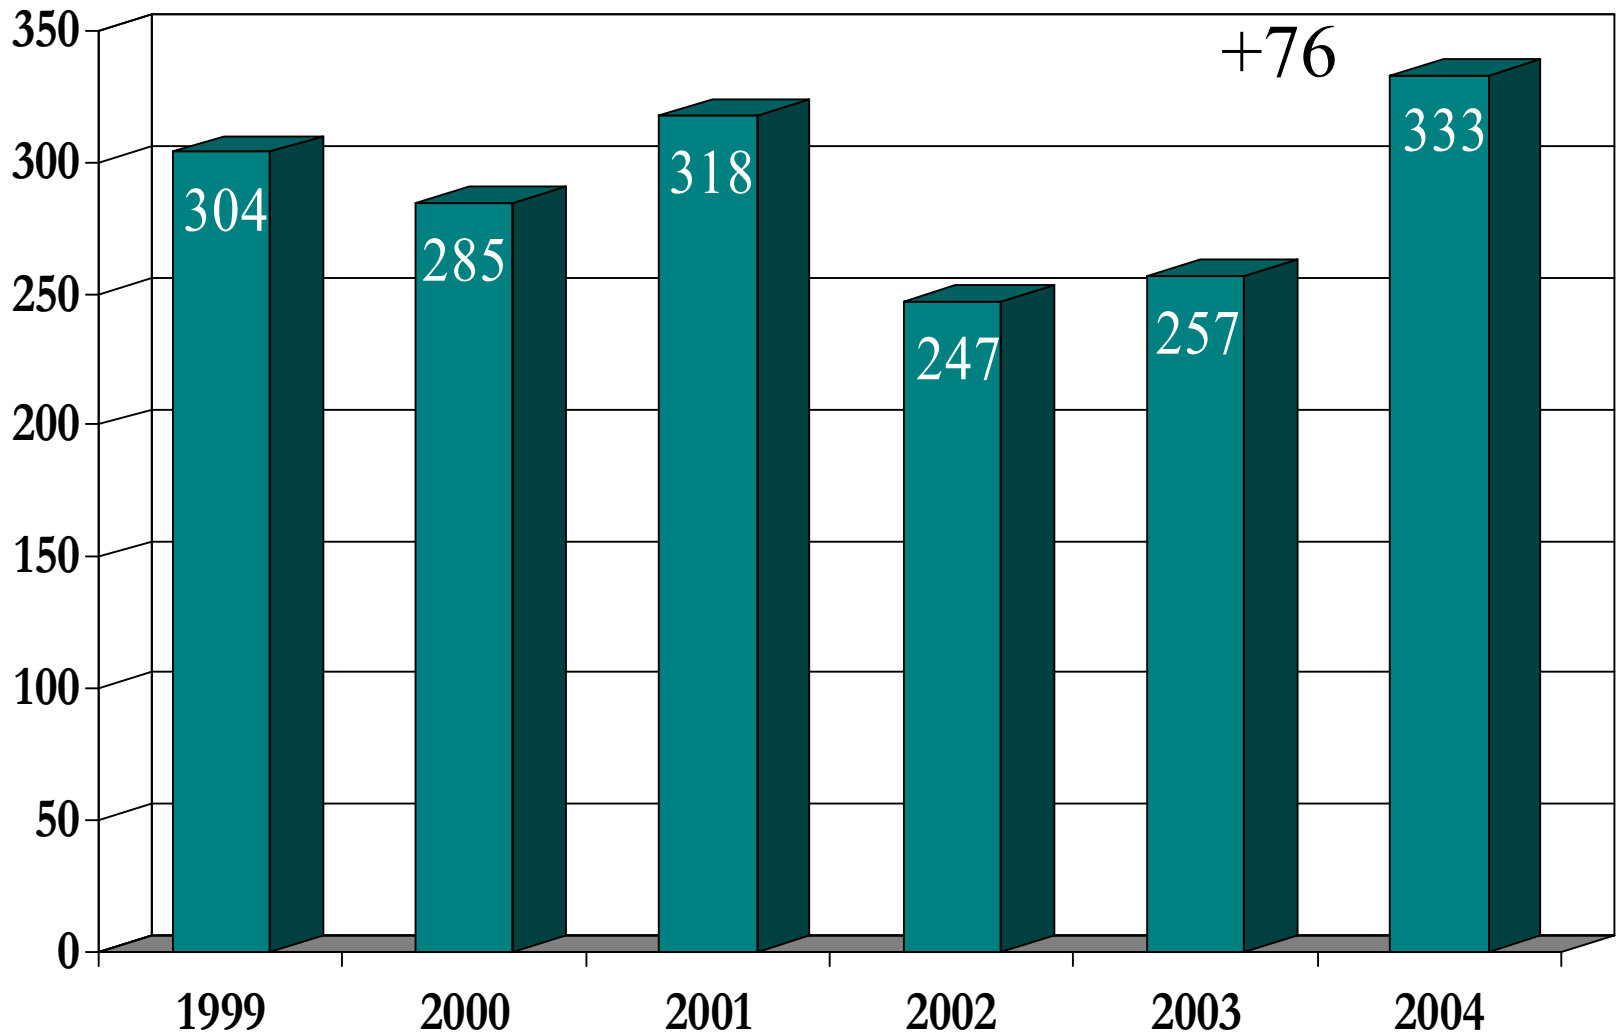

Number of Exams Passed By African-American Students

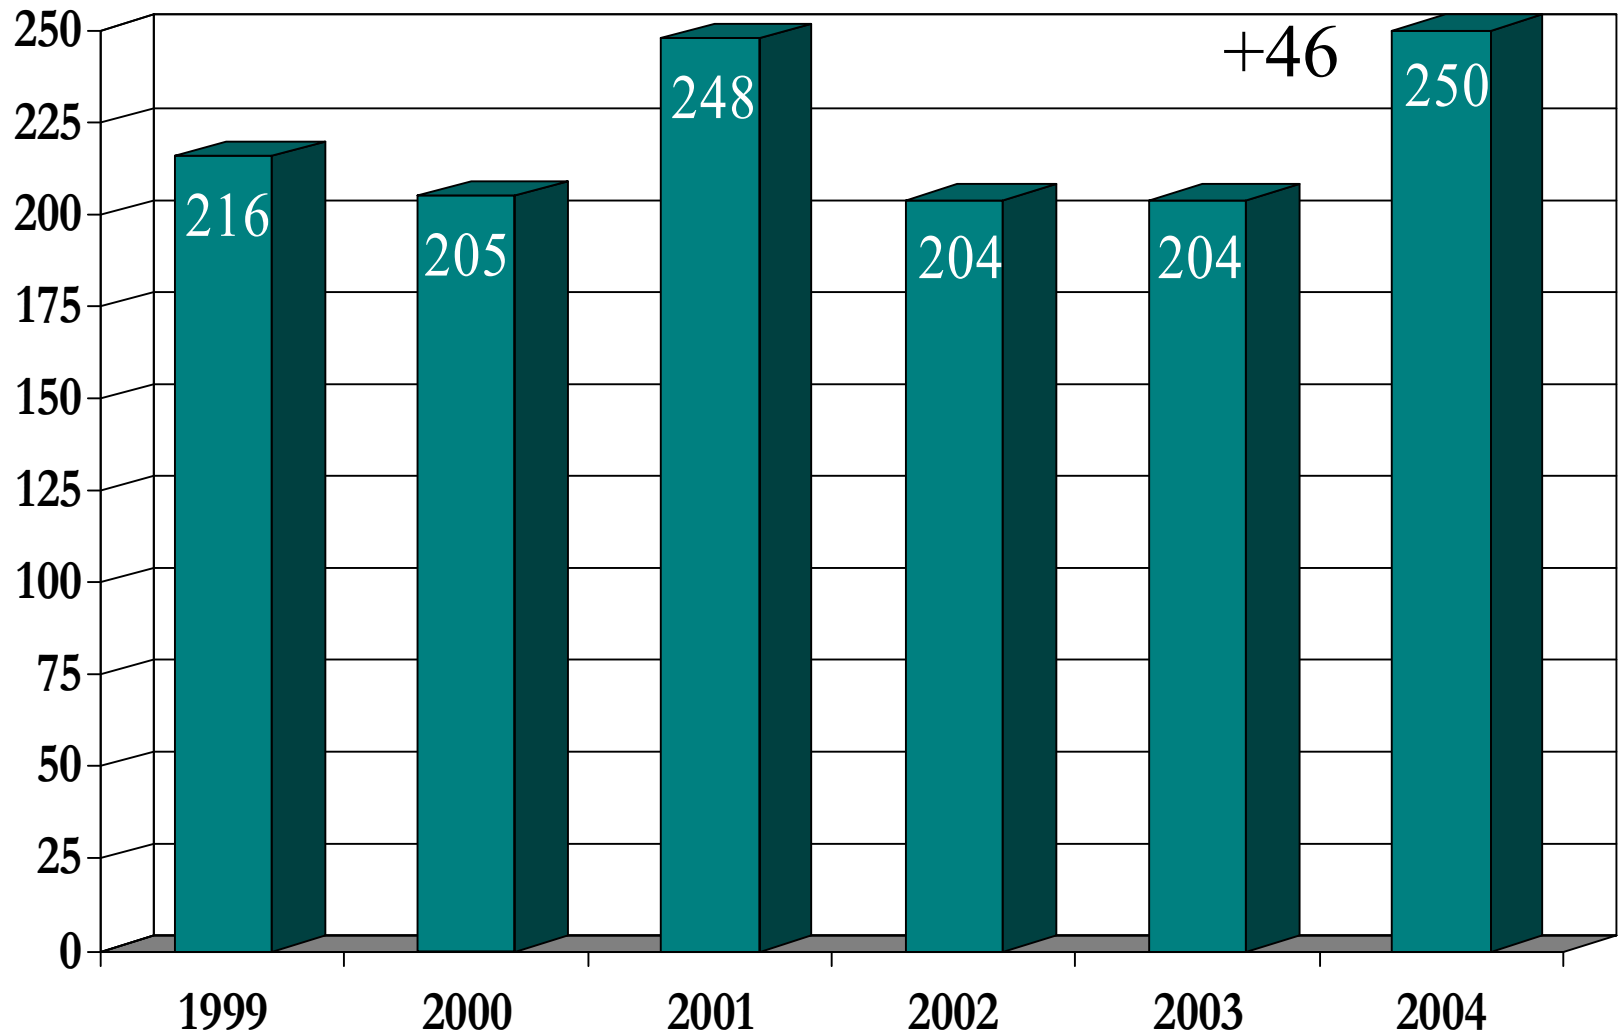

Percent of Exams Passed By African-American Students

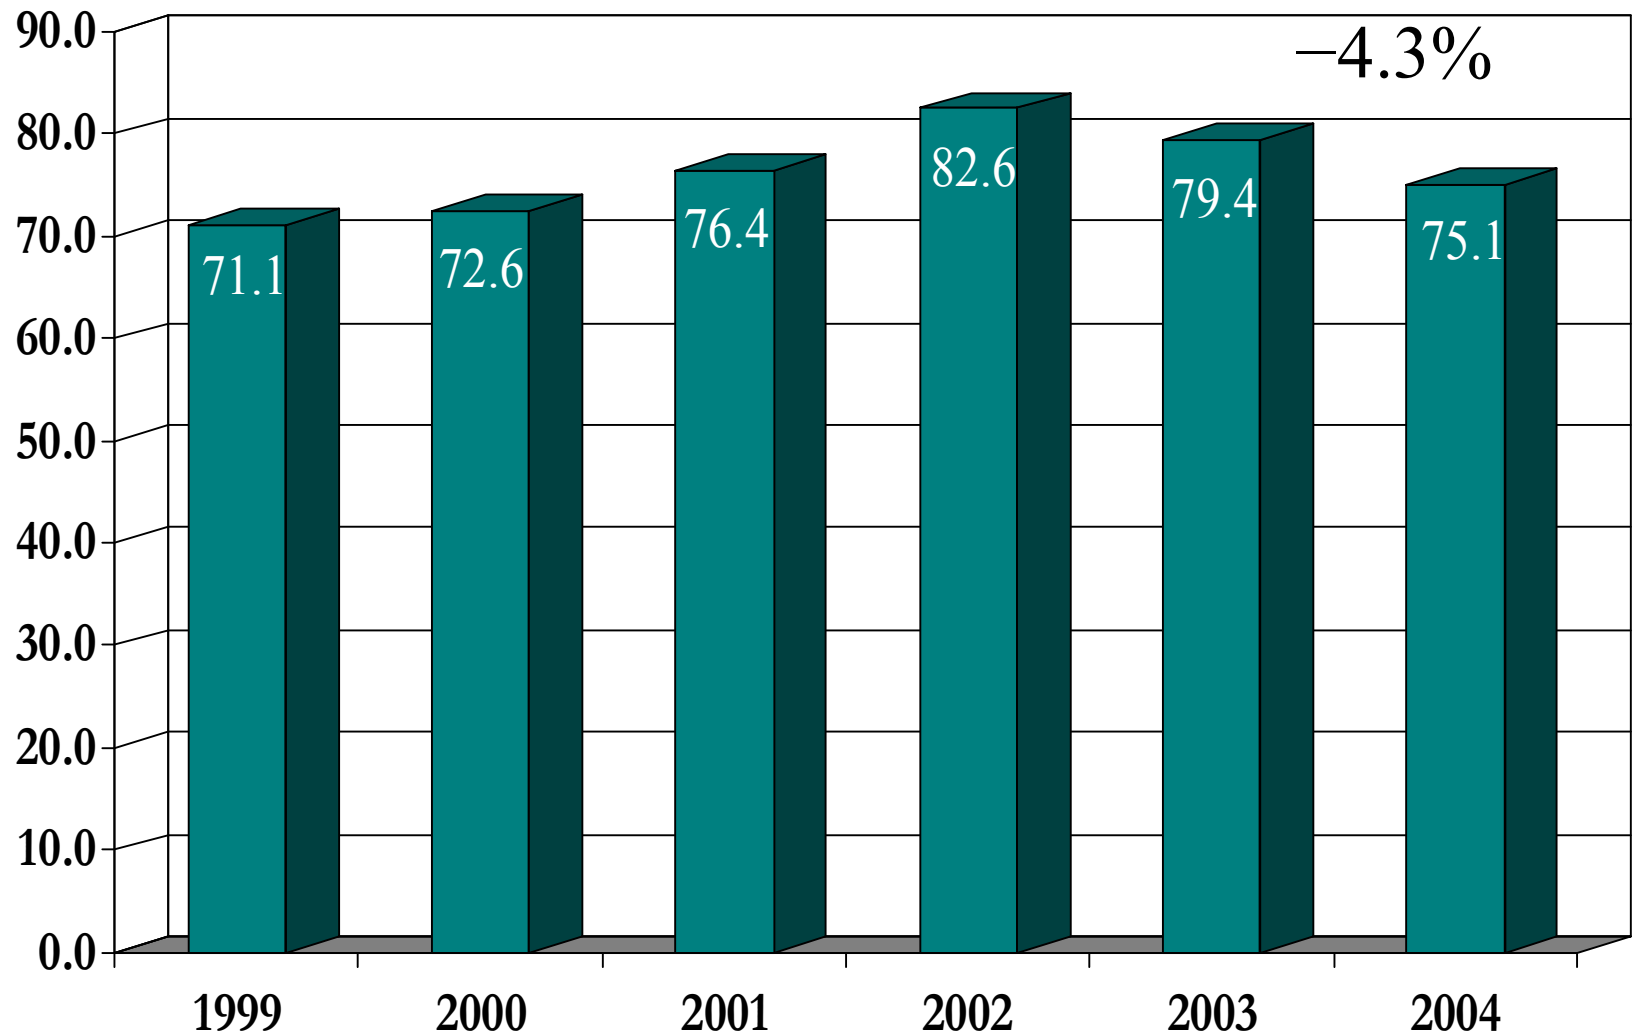

Number of Exams Taken By White Students

Number of Exams Passed By White Students

Percent of Exams Passed By White Students

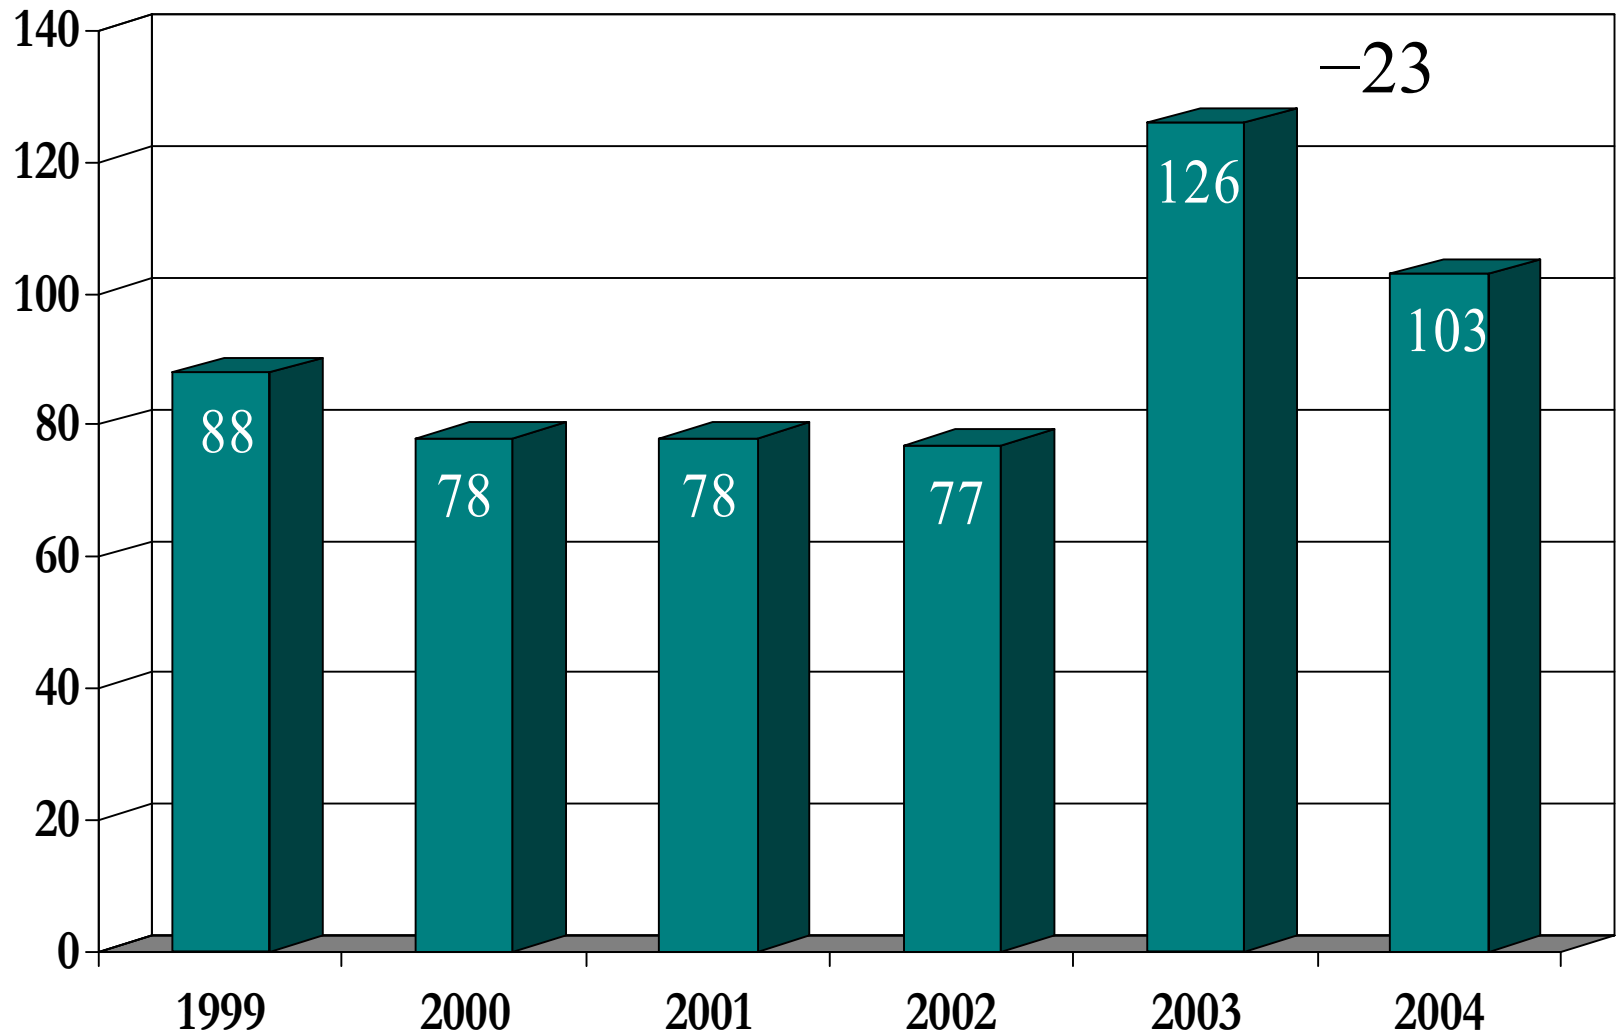

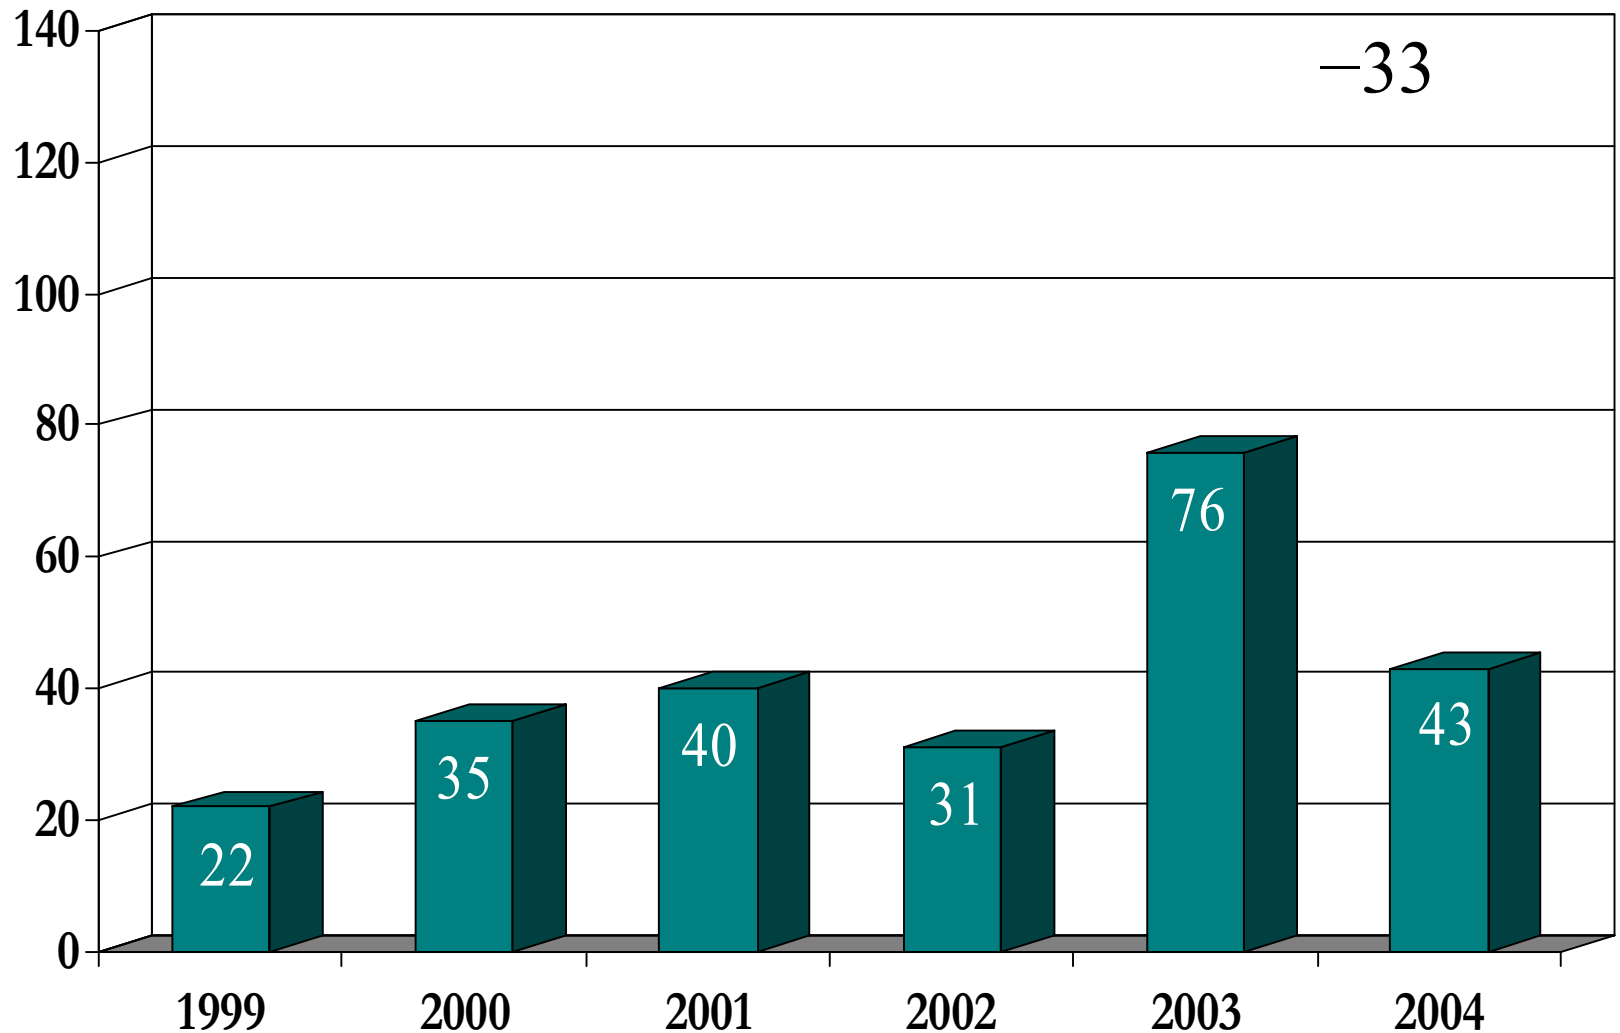

Richland One
South Carolina's Capital Schools

AP Subject
Highlights 2004

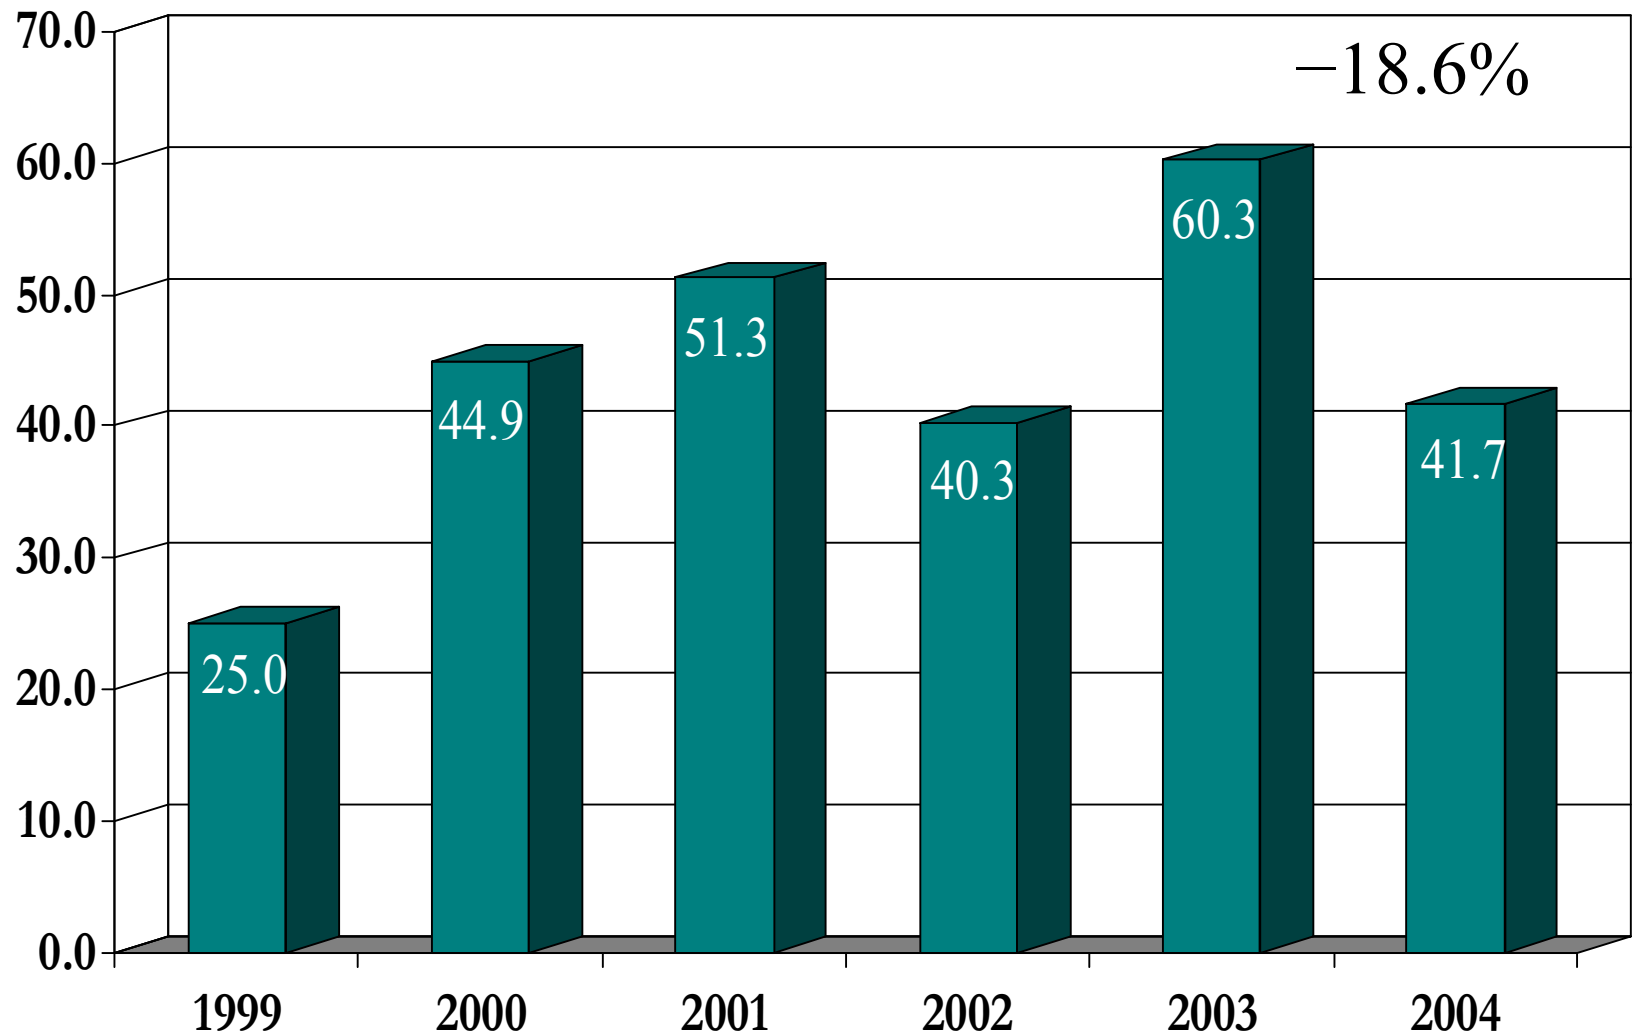

Number of U. S. History Exams Taken

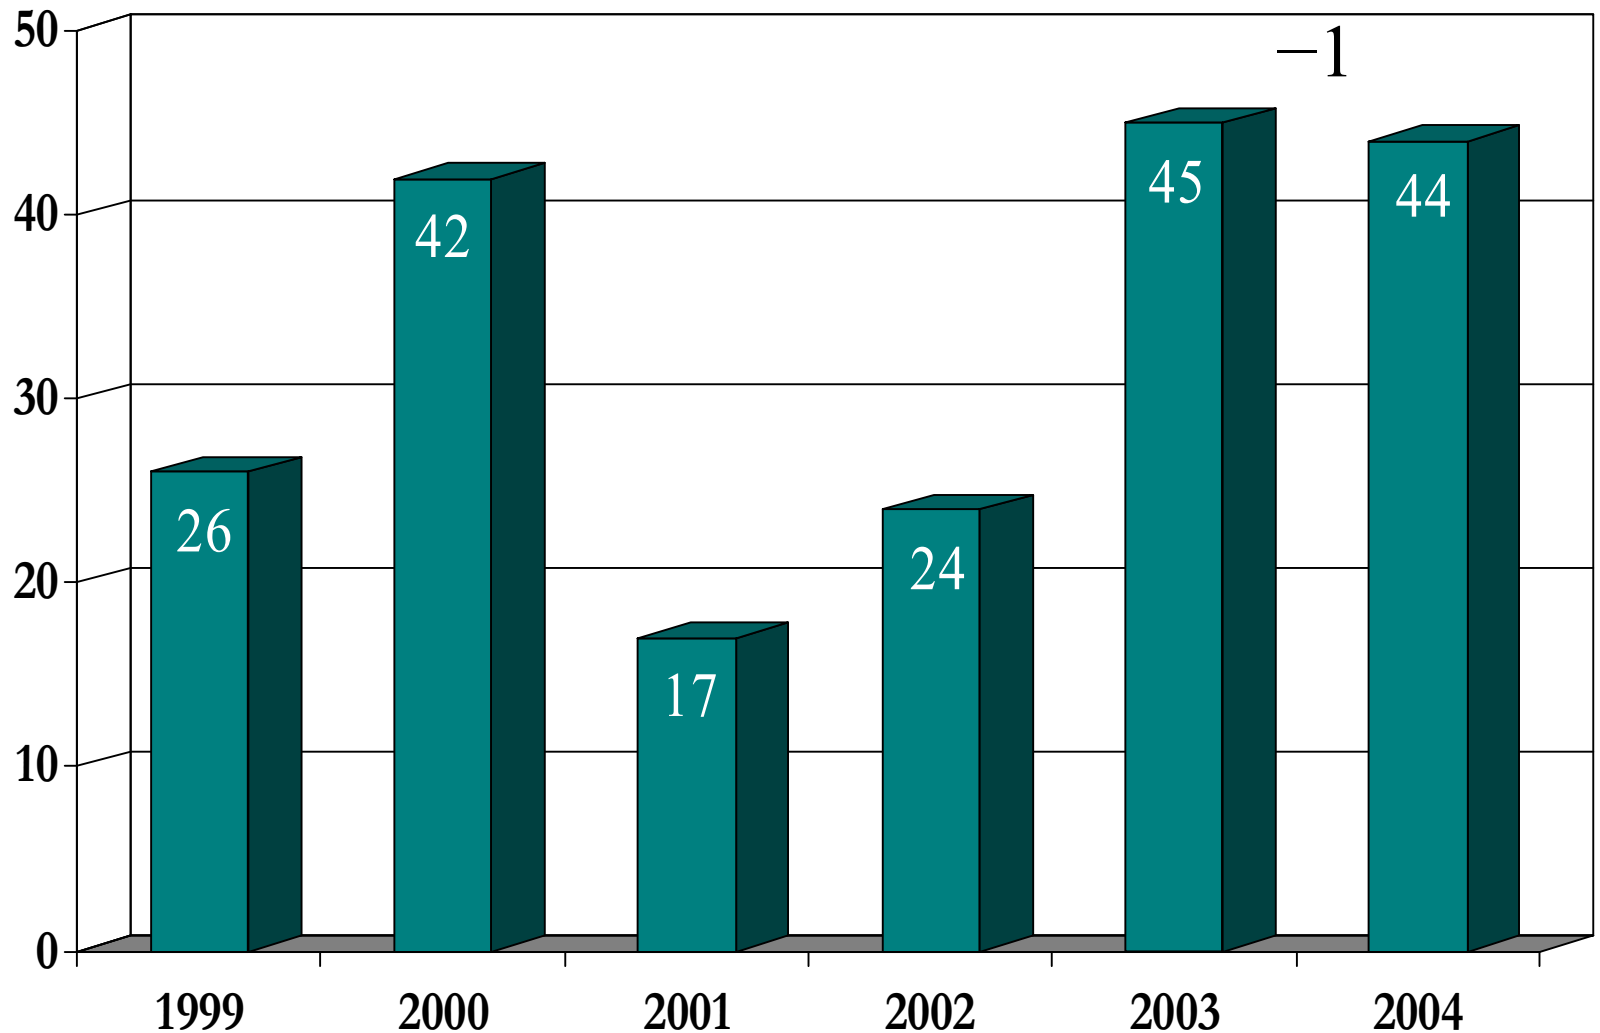

Number of Students Passed U. S. History Exam

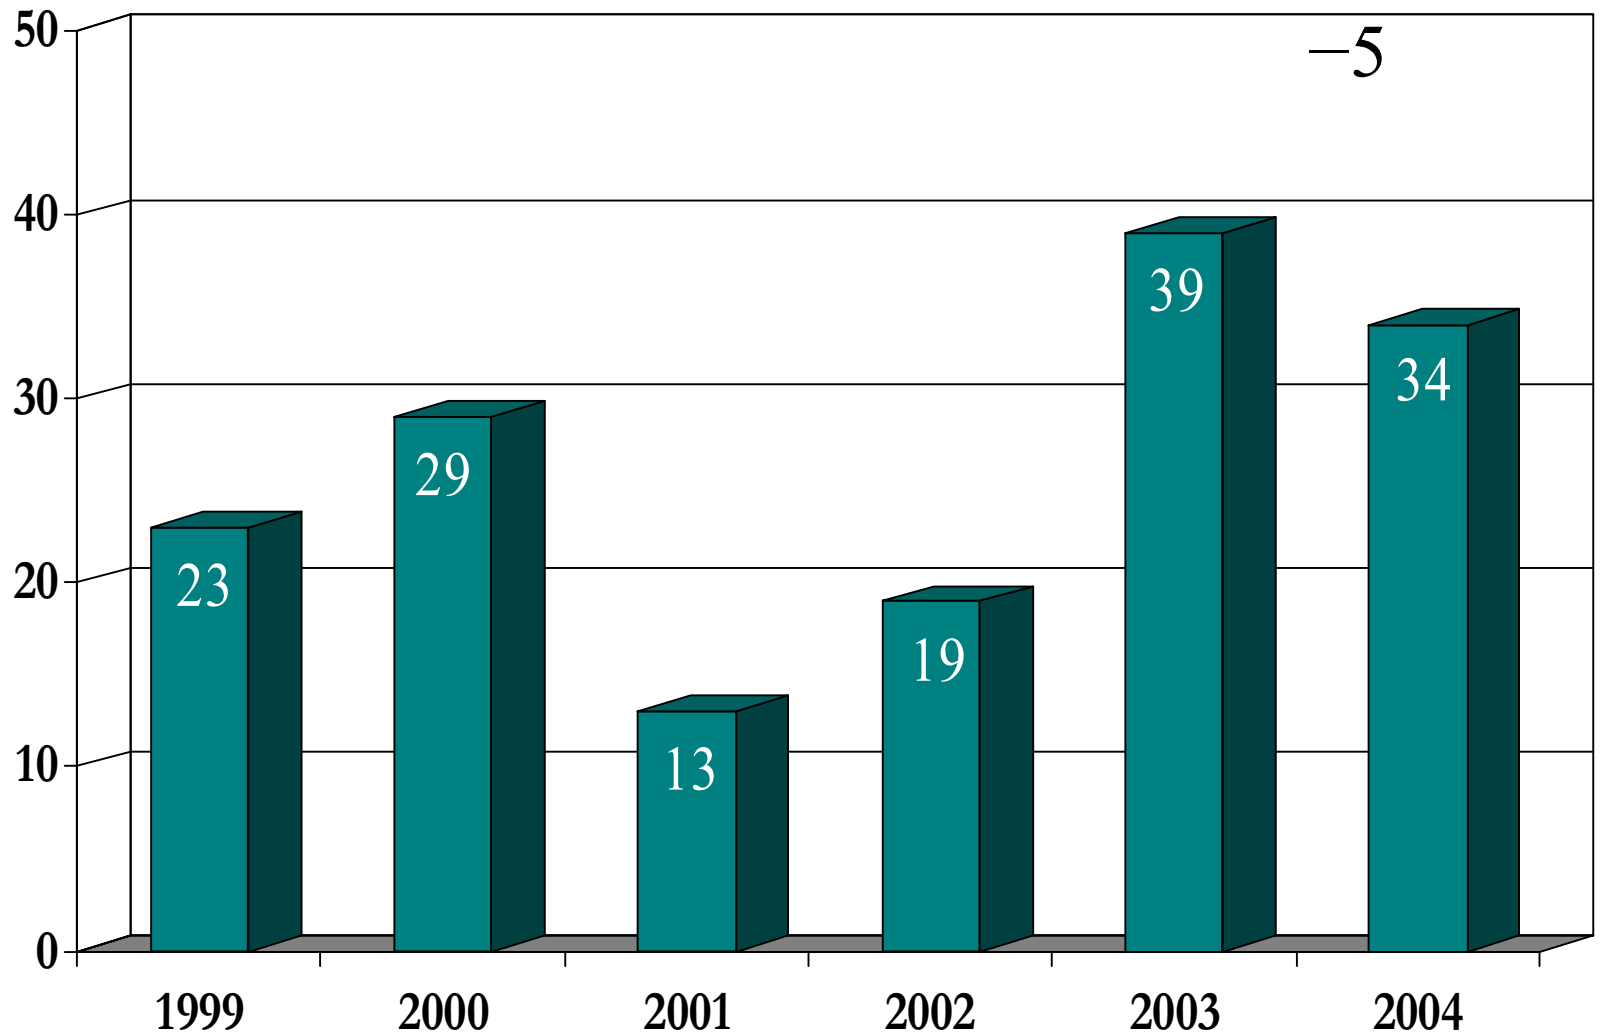

Percent of Students Passed U. S. History Exam

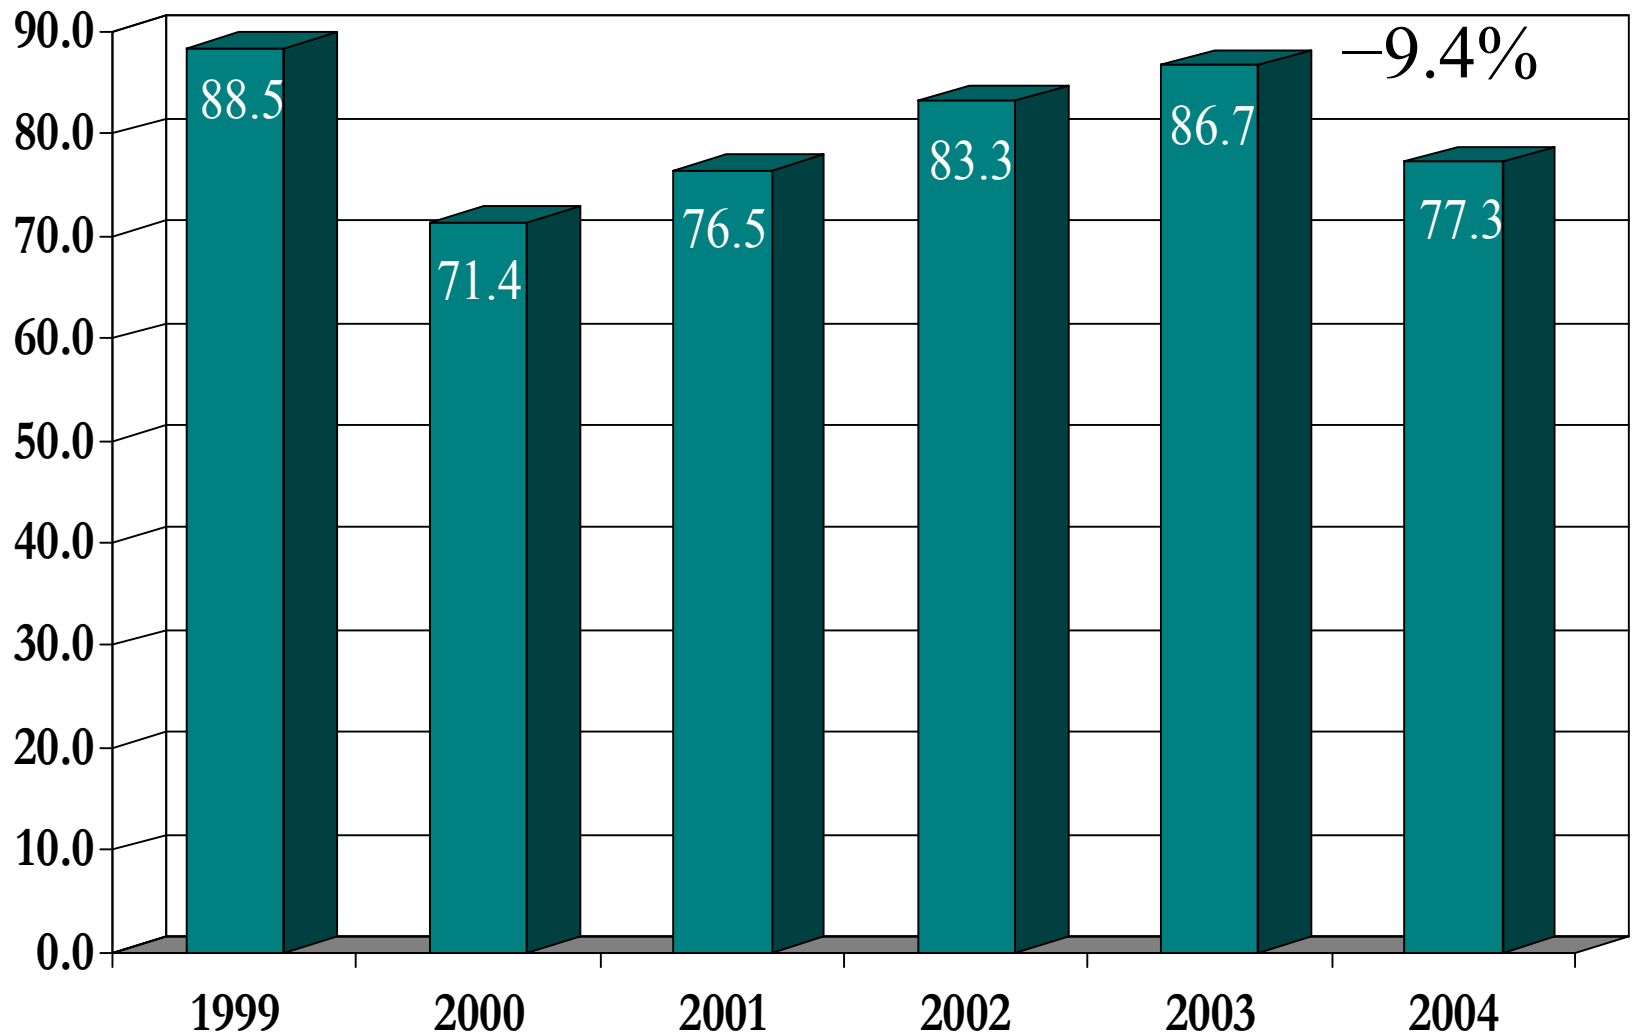

Number of Calculus BC Exams Taken

Number of Students Passed Calculus BC Exam

Percent of Students Passed Calculus BC Exam

Advanced Placement “Celebrations” 2004

1. District exceeded the state passing average in Art: Studio Art – 2-D Design, Studio Art – Drawing, Calculus AB, Calculus BC, European History, French Language, Human Geography, and Physics B.
2. Four schools increased the number of exams administered.
3. Two schools increased the percent of exams passed.
4. One school exceeded the national passing rate on the overall passing score.

District Support For Advanced Placement

- District AP Plan
- District collaboration with College Board
- APEX AP on-line “Classroom Tools” for teachers
- Teacher training (APEX, Summer Institutes, College Board Conferences)
- School incentives for increased AP participation and student achievement

District Support For Advanced Placement

- Vertical teaming
- Use of PSAT reports and other data to identify students for AP
- Pre-AP summer workshops for students
- School workshops for parents and students on benefits of AP
- Richland One video-conferencing classes and APEX AP on-line courses