CAREER AND TECHNICAL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

CTE allows students to engage through skill development and training in preparation for the workforce, collegiate studies, or military service beyond high school. The CTE courses and CTE Completer Programs (multiple courses in the same field of study) allow Richland One students to become career ready job candidates before high school graduation. Along with their course work, CTE students that are involved in Career and Technical Student Organizations (CTSOs) enhance their learning through contextual instruction, leadership and personal development, applied learning and real-world application.

CTSOs work as an integral component of the classroom curriculum and instruction, building upon employability and career skills and concepts through the application and engagement of students in hands-on demonstrations and real life and/or work experiences through a Career and Technical Education (CTE) program. CTSOs help guide students in developing a career path, a program of study and provide opportunities in gaining the skills and abilities needed to be successful in those careers through CTSO activities, programs and competitive events. In addition, students have opportunities to hold leadership positions at the local, state, and national level and attend leadership development conferences to network with other students as well as business and industry partners.

NTHS

The National Technical Honor Society is an educational non-profit that exists to honor, recognize, and empower students and teachers in Career & Technical Education. As the honor society for Career & Technical Education, NTHS serves over 100,000 active members annually in both secondary and postsecondary chapters across country.

National Membership Criteria

- Candidate must be a secondary or postsecondary student participating in a CTE pathway, program, major, or coursework.
- A chapter can choose one of the following GPA criteria. Whichever criteria is chosen, it must be applied consistently across all students in that induction cycle.
 - A minimum overall 3.0 unweighted GPA
 - A minimum 3.0 CTE-specific unweighted GPA
 - A minimum 3.0 unweighted GPA both overall and CTE specific

The mission of NTHS: To honor student achievement and leadership in career and technical education, promote educational excellence, award scholarships, and enhance career opportunities for the NTHS membership.

We will hold NTHS Officer election soon after the new year. Information was mailed home to parents on November 17.
