Principal's Report

Dr. Coletrain

- School Report Card-The school report card information was provided to parents. This information will also be mailed home with report cards. Perry Leveled Up from Average to Good. This is a great accomplishment for the school. All middle schools in Richland One are Average, Good, or Excellent.
- AVID Update-6th grade AVID students will take a field study to FATZ Café to learn the behind the scene details of running a restaurant. AVID students will take a field study to the Charlotte Hornets College Day and game on November 23, 2019.
- 8th Grade Trip-8th grade students will take a field study to Asheville, NC/Pigeon Forge, TN/Gatlinburg, TN on May 1-3, 2020. Mrs. Vanderhorst sent letters home to all 8th grade students. Parents should contact her regarding the trip.

Budget

Dr. Coletrain

- President Seabrook was not present. According to the last statement, the balance is $2041.06.

SIC Update

Dr. Coletrain

- Dr. Gray was not present for the meeting. The committee will address goals at the next meeting. The District SIC meeting will be held on November 14, 2019 at 5:30pm. Someone from the committee will attend the meeting.

Old Business

Dr. Coletrain

- The weather forecast for Trunk or Treat is calling for heavy rain. Dr. Coletrain will make a call regarding the event and let everyone know. If the event is canceled, all candy will be put in small treat bags for students and dispersed at the end of the day. Report Card conferences will continue as planned.

- The team discussed Pearls and Beau Ties, a mother-son dance. The tentative date is March 6, 2020 7:00 pm-9:30 pm. The information will be provided to the C.A. Johnson Cluster schools. The goal is to keep cost as low as possible and clear a profit of $500. Mrs. Seymore and Mrs. Andre-Noel will get with Mrs. Wider to determine what items from the hospitality room can be used for the dance. Mr. Lawson will speak with a relative of his about providing music for the event. Mrs. Seymore will contact Hall's Catering in Elgin.
- The team discussed having a spring carnival in April 2020. Possible ideas are to have different community agencies, a yard sale, and fun items for the kids.
- Please see the schedule for Basketball Games. Parents are encouraged to support both teams. Also, rally towels are on sale for $3. Committee members are asked to sell towels at home basketball games.
