

AR GBEC-R Gifts to and Solicitations by Staff

Issued 4/17/00/21

Each school principal will remind his/her staff and other school connected employees at least once yearly, by whatever means which seem best to him/her, of the board's policy which prohibits their selling to students and patrons any product for profit. Employees are prohibited from soliciting students for lessons (such as piano, swimming) where employees would be compensated as an individual without benefit to the school or district. Suggested ways of disseminating information concerning this rule:

- discussing in a full staff meeting
- posting on teachers' bulletin board
- placing a copy in each employee's box
- printing in the school manual
- e-mailing all staff
