

AR GCMD-R Instructional Staff Extra Duty

Issued ~~6/01~~ 00/21

The assignment of all teacher duties, including curricular and non-curricular activities, is at the discretion of the principal/director and his/her designee. ~~i~~n making such assignments, the principal/director is expected to take into consideration the workloads of the teachers and, insofar as possible, to equalize them.

All assignments are made on an annual basis at the discretion of the principal/director. Non-curricular activity assignments should be made as soon as possible, preferably prior to the end of the current school year. However, documented extenuating circumstances may extend this recommended time of notification.

Supplemental salaries are provided for designated curricular and non-curricular activities. ~~A committee of professional staff members and parents review these supplements on an annual basis. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to recommend. These supplements are reviewed periodically and recommendations for~~ any additions, deletions and/or changes in the supplemental salaries' budget, ~~which is are~~ included in the district's budget annually for board approval.

Supplemental salaries are not tied to teaching contracts. ~~N~~nor are they linked to any other contractual agreements with the district.
