

Preschool News December

This month in Pre-K:

Our character trait for December is responsibility.

We have been exploring ideas about places in the community, people in the community, transportation, and taking care of the environment. The goal is to have children develop responsibility in their daily lives while learning good citizenship.

- Great Books to Read at Home!

My Neighborhood: Places and Faces by Lisa Bullard
Let's Build a Clubhouse by Marilyn Singer
Reusing and Recycling by Charlotte Guillain
Our Earth: Making Less Trash by Peggy Hock
by Amanda Rondeau
On the Town: A Community Adventure by Judith Caseley

IMPORTANT DATES:

DECEMBER 13- FIELD TRIP TO THE CHILDREN'S THEATRE

(MRS. BATTLE AND MRS. SIGHTLER'S CLASSES)

DECEMBER 19- WINTER CONCERT

DECEMBER 20- CLASS PARTIES

DECEMBER 23 – JANUARY 3 WINTER BREAK

Have a Great Winter Break!!

Please remember to read with and to your kiddos.

