

Week of May 18th

All of Mr. Piner's music classes.

Hey Everybody,

I know we're all getting stressed with the school year coming to an end. You have all been great in regards to completing and submitting work as we've navigated these strange times. I understand you're overwhelmed and may be behind on your work for this class and others. Please use Falcon Time this week to study or catch up on any assignments. Please be sure to read and submit the following.

Submit the following:

Email me what you worked on during class this week. This will count as a participation grade.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Stay Safe!

KP