

Weekly eLearning News Blast Caughman Road Elementary

Week of March 30
Edition 1

Hello 4th Grade Families!

Your Fourth Grade Team of Teachers here! We know it's been a strange few weeks for sure. We hope that this news blast finds you well and safe.

We know that you and your 4th graders are working hard to complete all of the work. We want you to know that we appreciate your support and diligence. We know this was thrown on you and, in addition to being a parent, you've also become a teacher too. We're here to support you when you need it! Don't hesitate to reach out to us!

General Announcements:

The school will be open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9am to 1pm. You may pick up the packets for the rest of April starting on March 31.

Supplemental Materials:

Here are some general websites to consult for all subject resources:

- Raz Kids
- Lexia
- Dreambox
- Flocabulary
- Mr. Nussbaum
- Khan Academy
- Study Jams
- Ducksters

Housekeeping:

As of right now, we do not have a drop off system in place for collecting the work that you and your family are completing. Please keep it organized by week and as soon as we have a system in place, we will share it with you. Thanks again for all you're doing!

Just a reminder:
