

Reading Response Questions

(to be recorded in Homework journal student has in backpack)

*CHOOSE ONE TO WRITE A RESPONSE TO (JUST LIKE OUR HOMEWORK)!

Fiction:

What lesson did the character learn?

Did you character change in the story? How?

How did this story make you feel?

What do you predict will happen next?

Is there anything you would change about the story? What would it be?

Summarize what you read in the story today?

What were the most important events that happened in your reading?

Were you able to make a connection to your reading? What was it?

Nonfiction:

What did you learn new while you were reading?

What else would you like to know about the topic?

What are some of the unfamiliar new words you found? What do you think they mean?

Choose a text features and write a description on how the author shared information.

What connections were you able to make to your reading?

Supplemental Resources for Week One

Uploaded Reading Response questions

Uploaded Reading Workshop Answer Sheet

Uploaded Word Study Answer Sheet

www.raz-kids.com

Watch Carefully article and packet

Sacagawea article and questions

Word Study Building Spelling Skills

www.flocabulary.com (work on assignments)

Lexia learners:

<https://www.lexiacore5.com/register>

Teacher emails mary.berry@richlandone.org,

Nathalie.bygrave@richlandone.org, chisono.drysdale@richlandone.org,

Ashley.thomas@richland.one.org

After school learners:

www.mobymax.com

ELA resource students with Mrs. Nowak
20 minutes of iReady 5x a week.