

Weekly Update: May 4-8/2020

Hello Parents,

I have scheduled individual conferences this week, and look forward to seeing everyone at your scheduled time. Schedules were emailed and posted on ClassDojo, with the reminder to please make sure your student has his/her Week 5 and 6 work available to discuss.

I know many of you are curious about when you may clean out lockers and retrieve items from the classroom. I will ask about this during our Wednesday faculty meeting if it is not discussed.

Have a great week!

Peace,

Mr. Wills
