eLearning Newsletter #4

Dear Parents,
You have this! Hang in there! The advice below is tough, believe me, but also helpful-

Manage your own anxiety

It's completely understandable to be anxious right now (how could we not be?) but how we manage that anxiety has a big impact on our kids. Keeping your worries in check will help your whole family navigate this uncertain situation as easily as possible.

Again don't hesitate to contact me!

Reading Packet 1, Section 2 Lesson 3 pp.78-86 & Math Packet pp. 17-21 should be finished by Friday, May 1,2020

Focus on reading is on Connections.
& math focus is Understanding Place
Value Concepts and Regrouping
