

March 17th-19th 2020

Name: _____

‘Twitter’ Phrase: Create a dance phrase based on a brief tweet from a positive female role model in honor of Women’s History Month. Make sure your tweet is appropriate and your dance represents the tweet without being literal.

Tweet used for inspiration: _____

- _____ Movements were clearly based on what is said in the tweet (4 pts)
- _____ Movement was abstract and creative (2 pts)
- _____ Clear beginning, middle, and end (2 pts)
- _____ Fluid transitions to connect each movement (2 pts)
- _____ Well-structured and rehearsed (2 pts)
- _____ Dancers stayed in character the whole performance (2 pts)
- _____ Lasts at least 3 counts of 8 (24 counts) (1 pt)

_____ Total Points / 15

Comments:

Please use the rubric to see only how you are being graded for this assignment. You may choose to record yourself and email to me or just show me when you return to school. If you don’t have internet access create your own brief tweet about a positive female role model.

March 23rd- March 25th

Women’s History Dance

Create a dance in honor of Women’s History Month. Choose a positive female figure who has made a difference in your life. Choose a song, a costume, and create a dance with a minimum of 48 counts that pays tribute to the person you selected. You should also include one paragraph detailing who you chose, why you chose them, and how they have impacted your life. Be prepared to perform when you return if you don’t have internet access. If you do have internet access email a video in.

- _____ Movements were clearly based on what they wrote about their female role model (4 pts)
- _____ Movement was abstract and creative (1 pt)
- _____ Clear beginning, middle, and end (3 pts)
- _____ Fluid transitions to connect each movement (2 pts)
- _____ Well-structured and rehearsed (2 pts)
- _____ Dancers stayed in character the whole performance (1 pt)
- _____ Music fit the dance (1 pt)
- _____ Lasts at least 4 counts of 8 (32 counts) (1 pt)

--	--	--	--