

“You Should Be a Lawyer!”

Diversity in the Law Workshop

Has a friend or family member ever told you: “You should be a lawyer!” Have you thought about a career as an attorney? If you are interested in court cases and legal issues, or if you want to bring about positive change in our society, you should attend this free virtual workshop.

Thursday, May 6

3-5 pm

6-8 pm

REGISTER HERE!

Afternoon Session: Diversifying the Legal Community

3 pm: Diversity in the Legal Profession

4 pm: Empowering Women in the Legal Profession

Evening Session: Finding Your Path to the Law

6 pm: Finding a Mentor

7 pm: What do Lawyers Do?

Speakers

Wanda Adams, 13th Circuit Solicitor’s Office

Cherlyn W. Borjes, South Carolina Procurement Review Panel

Clifford Bourke, Southeastern Freight Lines

Nichole Davis, South Carolina Bar Association

Sutania Fuller, Eleventh Circuit Solicitor's Office

Taylor Gilliam, South Carolina Division of Appellate Defense

Doward Harvin, Sabb Law Group, LLC

Janet Holmes, McKay, Cauthen, Settana & Stublely

Matthew Kirk, Clemson University Tiger Alliance

Susan Kuo, University of South Carolina School of Law

Mandy Powers-Norrell, Norrell & Powers-Norrell

Christy Rogers, Nexsen Pruet

Leslie R. Snider, Merritt Webb

Kimberly Snipes, South Carolina State Bar Association

Sponsors:

Clemson University Pre-Law Office

For more information, contact Tim Garrison, Clemson’s pre-law advisor, at tagarri@clemson.edu.