

Attendance Information:

Students must be present for at least HALF of the class period to be marked present.

Students can miss 10 days in a full credit course and five (5) days in a half credit course.

Excessive absences will result in a failure of the course & loss of credit.

This includes excused absences documented with a parent or doctor's note.

Students may be eligible to recover excessive absences by paying a fee and serving time during attendance recovery through Edgenuity (absences must be documented and excused).

Legal absences include documented: MEDICAL, PARENT EXCUSE, OSS, FUNERAL, COURT, & RECOGNIZED RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY.

Excuses must be submitted to the attendance office.

Absences must be excused to be granted permission to make up work.
