Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework and special projects/assignments are completed and submitted on time.
- Monitoring my child's screen time to include, television, computer, and other devices.
- Volunteering in my child's classroom.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on policy advisory groups, such as being the Title I Part A parent representative on the school's School Improvement Team, the Title I Parent Advisory Council, the District Parent Advisory Council, the School Support Team or other school advocacy or policy groups.
- Abide by school policies and procedures as stated in the District Code of Conduct.

School-Parent Compact

H.B. Rhame Jr. Elementary School and its community agree that this compact outlines how parents, teachers, support staff, and the students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic performance. Together, we will build and develop a partnership designed to assist our students in developing and maintaining high standards and levels of achievement that will sustain them during and beyond elementary school.

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Do homework every day and ask for help when needed.
- Submit my homework and special projects/assignments on time.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give to my parents or guardian all notices and information received by me from my school every day.

School Responsibilities

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student achievement standards as follows:
 - On grade-level reading,
 - Meet Read to Succeed requirements: <https://ed.sc.gov/instruction/early-learning-and-literacy/read-to-succeed1/>
 - Develop on grade-level Math skills
2. Hold parent-teacher conferences, Oct. 28th and Feb. 28th during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.
4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff during planning periods and scheduled appointment times.
5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities. Identification is required at each visit. Parents interested in volunteering should obtain a volunteer application form from the school or download from www.richlandone.org.

Parents,

Recently, our school's Title I Planning Team met to review and revise our Title I Parent & Family Engagement Policy as well as the School-Parent Compact. We value all stakeholders' input and would appreciate your feedback on the revised drafts of these documents. Please review the attached and send this form back with your child.

School-Parent Compact
