1.3 In attempt to increase literacy across the grade levels and make reading more inviting and appealing to students, reading nooks will be strategically placed throughout the building. Research shows that reading nooks, or spaces, can “trigger children’s reading explorative behaviors,” which enhances their curiosity and motivates them to read more (Chou et al., 2016, p. 90). In efforts to strengthen the focus on literacy and reading, create learning zones throughout the school that will be designated for reading and literacy talks. Establish 10 reading nooks throughout the school (some in central locations within the building and some in classrooms) at approximately $2,500 each. These learning zones to consist of storage for books on various reading levels, vinyl seating pods, cozy alcoves for reading, etc.	1	100	500	furniture	26560.07
